- The Amazonian Chakra at Napo province (right)
- The Andean Chakra at Cotacachi (left)

Andean Chakra

Traditional drink “Chicha” (it is like Makgeolli in Andes)

Amazon Cacao at local Chakra

Fermentation and drying process

Local agricultural cooperates produce their own chocolate

Some Japanese chocolate companies are also importing cacao and cooperate with the Amazonian agricultural coops

Things to be considered in countering threats against GIAHS

GIAHS/NIAHS members

1. to design mutual product marketing
2. to collaborate new product developments
3. to exchange knowledge
4. to continue ERAHS
5. to expand it to the global research society

Thank you
